Look closely

A labeled-style vector scene showing garden seeds and the details that help explain seeds need a start.

Read together

Garden Seeds are all around us. Look at garden seeds with kind eyes. They need a safe place. They use soil, water, and light. We can look, not grab. Then we can tell what we saw.

Seeds Need a Start | Nonfiction

Use details from the booklet to share your thinking.

There are exactly three questions. Explain your ideas in your own words.

1. What is Seeds Need a Start mostly about?

2. What do garden seeds use or need?

3. How should readers look at garden seeds safely?

Grown-up note

A-Z labels are a practical family guide to text complexity, not a formal placement tool.
